

Corporal Brittney N. Collins
United States Marine Corps

Brittney was born on June 20, 1989 in Charlotte, North Carolina to Janet and Billy Collins. She graduated from Rock Hill High School located in Rock Hill, SC, in May 2007. She graduated with her bachelors from Clemson University, located in Clemson, SC, in May 2011. Also, she has graduated with her masters from the University of South Carolina, located in Columbia, SC, in May 2016. Brittney attended recruit training aboard Marine Corps Recruit Depot Parris Island, South Carolina.

After graduating recruit training, Private First Class Collins attended Marine Combat Training in Jacksonville, North Carolina and subsequently the Marine Corps Supply Administration and Operations Specialist School in Camp Johnson, North Carolina. PFC Collins was meritoriously promoted to Lance Corporal Collins in November 2013, as a result as being the honor graduated of her class. Upon completion of Supply School, Lance Corporal Collins was assigned to Detachment 1 Supply Company, CLB 451, CLR 45 4TH MLG, located in Greenville, SC.

In July 2014, Lance Corporal Collins was assigned to ADOS orders in Greenville, SC. During this assignment, Lance Corporal Collins was directly responsible for accounting for all supply gear and aiding in the planning of Annual Training for the Greenville unit. Lance Corporal Collins was also responsible for issuing out supply gear to the Marines and entering the individual gear list of the Marines into the system.

In December 2014, Lance Corporal Collins was assigned to Headquarters Marine Corps, Marine and Family Programs Division, Casualty Section. While serving in the Casualty Section, Lance Corporal Collins performed the duties of a Funeral Honors Clerk, fulfilling a billet of a Sergeant. During this assignment Lance Corporal Collins was responsible for tracking and tasking funeral honor services for our deceased Marines and ensuring that their next of kin received an appropriate military honors service.

In December 2015, Lance Corporal Collins was meritoriously promoted to Corporal Collins, after submitting a meritorious package to the board. Corporal Collins' personal decorations include: Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Selected Marine Corps Reserve Medal, Letter of Appreciations (3), Meritorious Mast (2), Certificate of Commendation, Black Belt in Marine Corps Martial Arts Training, Expert Rifle Marksmanship Badge, and a First Class PFT and CFT.