

Bryant enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in April 2000. Following graduation from recruit training at Parris Island, he completed his MOS training at the School of Infantry located at Camp Geiger in December 2000.

Bryant is a combat veteran of Iraq (2004), having served in the United States Marine Corps reserves based in Johnson City, Tennessee, where he was a machine gunner in the infantry while reaching the rank of Sergeant. He received various military accolades including the Combat Action Ribbon and National Defense Service Medal.

Bryant is an Assistant General Counsel at the National Rifle Association of America. He grew up in Tennessee where he spent most of his childhood hunting and fishing in the East Tennessee mountains. During school, he served as a law clerk for the District Attorney General in Knox County. After graduating from law school and becoming an attorney, he practiced in the areas of civil litigation and corporate law for many years.